Verbal Responses:

Erik Morris – Governor

I believe I am the only Jewish candidate running for Governor of Florida this election cycle. While I am a huge proponent of the Jewish people and believe in Israel's need to exist, I am not an advocate of Netanyahu/Trump policies that allow for genocidal conditions in the Middle East. I am also very against Hamas and Hezbollah, but believe that the Palestinian people also have a right to exist and to be free of violence, just like the Israeli people. I believe both trump and Beni have committed war crimes in an effort to hide themselves from their own corruption and legal troubles. If elected, I would be happy to be part of the solution between Palestine, Israel and other regional stakeholders to find a peaceful and permanent solution. I am not naive or full-headed enough to say I have the right solution, but would be able to listen and mediate between parties. If Palenstine and Israel citizens both want a one-state, shared solution, working toward that is good. If they want a seperate two-state solution, also good. If there is not consensus among the people, they working to understand the options and risks without an end goal in mind of one or two state is a good first step.

Verbal Responses:

Ryan Neill – Florida House of Representatives

I am supportive of the Jewish people and any anti-discrimination against them. I would support laws that protect anyone based on their religion, sex and race.
